Thankyou for taking part in the second iteration of the "Can Data be Cultured" workshop at the Field Museum.

To make future workshops better we would like to hear from you. What did you find helpful? What was confusing? What did you want to hear more or less about? This is a single form for all five sections, so if you did not attend a session simply indicate that you did not attend.

We hope you enjoyed the experience and thank you in advance for your feedback
